

Supplement to the U.S. in Prophecy:

“The wall of separation between church and state is a metaphor based on bad history – a metaphor which has proved useless as a guide in judging. It should be frankly and explicitly abandoned.” The late Chief Justice William Rehnquist.

“Those who would renegotiate the boundaries between church and state must therefore answer a difficult question: Why would we trade a system that has served us so well for one that has served others so poorly?” Sandra Day O’Conner June 27, 2005 (Ten Commandments ruling)

Liberty Magazine, May/June 1980 – Robert Grant, director of the “Christian Voice,” a group reportedly intending to mold Christians and other “morally right-thinking people” into a potent political factor in American Politics, said “If Christians unite, we can do anything. We can pass any law or any amendment, and that’s exactly what we intend to do.”

“The Next obligation that a citizen of God’s world order owes is to himself, ‘Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy’ is a command for the personal benefit of each citizen... Higher civilizations rise when people can rest and draw inspiration from God. Laws in America that mandated a day of rest (Sunday laws) have been nullified as a violation of the separation of church and state... As an outright insult to God and His plan, only those policies that can be shown to have a clearly secular purpose are recognized.” The New World Order p. 236 Pat Robertson

February 24, 1992 “Only President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II were present in the Vatican Library on Monday, June 7, 1982. It was the first time the two had met, and they talked for 50 minutes... But Reagan and the Pope spent only a few minutes reviewing events in the Middle East. Instead they remained focused on a subject much closer to their heart:

Poland and the Soviet dominance of Eastern Europe. In that meeting, Reagan and the Pope agreed to undertake a clandestine campaign to hasten the dissolution of the communist empire. Declares Richard Allen, Reagan's first National Security Adviser: "This was one of the great secret alliances of all time."

“The past few years have seen cordial but cooling relations between the United States and the Vatican. Since President Obama took office, he has visited the Vatican just once, and the administration has demonstrated little more than a perfunctory interest in the Holy See's diplomatic role in the world. This is a lost opportunity at a critical time for America. U.S. foreign policy has much to gain from its relationship with the Holy See, the governing body of the Catholic Church. No institution on earth has both the international stature and the global reach of the Holy See — the "soft power" of moral influence and authority to promote religious freedom, human liberties, and related values that Americans and our allies uphold worldwide.” Francis Rooney USA Today 10/26/2013.

Pope speaks to Congress 07/24/2015

“Yours is a work which makes me reflect in two ways on the figure of Moses. On the one hand, the patriarch and lawgiver of the people of Israel symbolizes the need of peoples to keep alive their sense of unity by means of just legislation. On the other, the figure of Moses leads us directly to God and thus to the transcendent dignity of the human being. Moses provides us with a good synthesis of your work: you are asked to protect, by means of the law, the image and likeness fashioned by God on every human face.” Pope Francis. 07/24/15.

When you take into account this statement as well as the recent visit of the Pope to the U.S. in the light of the subject of the U.S. in prophecy, we are seeing Bible prophecy being fulfilled right before our very eyes.
